

THE ILLUSTRATED BIBLE

Now it happened in the process of time that the king of Egypt died. Then the children of Israel groaned because of the bondage, and they cried out; and their cry came up to God because of the bondage. So God heard their groaning, and God remembered His covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. And God looked upon the children of Israel, and God acknowledged them.

This plant features flower colors ranging from pure white through all shades of pink, lavender and red. Some cultivars produce double flowers, and others have a thin white edge on the petals, stripes, or ruffled edges. It is often given as a gift during the winter months, as it flowers beautifully during cool weather. It naturally becomes dormant during the summer and ceases flowering. - Brenda Weaver
